Can you Give Two Days of Home Repair in Appalachia?

This was our 2018 3-church volunteer team at one of the two porches we built.

Try out this heart-warming way of fulfilling your commitment to serving God and make a difference for a struggling family. The Hunger Church, Charles Wesley, will be sending a small team on a short mission trip to Brenton, West Virginia May 8-11. Come to a Q & A session following worship on Feb. 10. We'll be staying at <https://www.asphome.org/centers/wvguyanvalley/>.

We'll be doing home repair projects with the Appalachia Service Project (ASP). See more at www.asphome.org/volunteer/year-round. We'll leave Wednesday morning, work with an experienced team leader Thursday and Friday, and return on Saturday. People age 14 & older of all skill levels are welcome as long as space is available. Our Group number is 8312.

Can't come? We need supporters to pray for and/or donate toward this trip & a full-week one in July. While volunteers cover most of their own expenses, the church covers most transportation costs and some team supplies. For more information, contact Tylee Smith, Coordinator: tylees@verizon.net or phone: 703-598-7126.
