Caster of seeds, gatherer of stones, you who make the impossible improbable: Thank you for steadfast love and amazing grace. Thank you for gathering stones into a foundation, a foundation into a building, a building into a hungry and nourishing place for all your children. Sixty years you have blessed our casting and our gathering. And as all things are possible, we renew our hearts and dedicate our lives to the way that leads to Calvary. As we walk with you, abide with us still, thirty, sixty, a hundredfold, we humbly pray! AMEN.

Sending Out to Rebuild Rainelle: April 25-28

This congregation is sending 2 teams of volunteers to Rainelle, WV, to rebuild homes lost in major flooding in 2016. Over 90% of the homes in the downtown area were destroyed with many occupants unable to rebuild their homes. Volunteers from Great Falls UMC and Chesterbrook UMC are joining our teams. We'll work with the Appalachian Service Project (ASP) which has responded by building more homes in WV than any other organization or business and building them more quickly. Will you join with us? Volunteer; pray for this work, the survivors of the floods, and the ASP team; donate.

See www.asphome.org/disasterrecovery or

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/ASPGreenbrier> and contact Tylee Smith, tylees@verizon.net or 703-356-7126, for details.
